

RSCDS LEEDS BRANCH MUSICIANS' WORKSHOP

The workshop is intended for Scottish dance musicians who are interested in learning more about playing for classes. This will include different music for different purposes, responding to teachers' instructions and other tips to survive the class situation! Dancers will be present to allow some of these techniques to be tried out live.

Jeremy is a pianist and accordionist, based near London, and he has played for classes, day schools, and at Summer School for over 20 years. He will also bring to bear his expertise as a demonstration dancer and qualified RSCDS teacher.
